

PRBA National MOOT COURT C O M P E T I T I O N

Press Release

An American Agenda, Common Values, Common Solutions, Common Sense

The economic crisis in Puerto Rico - what does that mean to Florida and the United States?

An open discussion among leaders in Central Florida who will be presented with ideas, potential solutions, insight into what the crisis means in the way of financial stability of the Municipal Stock Market, the living standards on the island, the migration flow to Florida and United States mainland.

Committed to appear on the panel: Anthony Suarez, Esq., President PRBA FL; Betty Lugo, Esq., President of the Puerto Rican Bar Assn. of NY; Evie De La Rosa, Esq., President of PRBA Illinois; Antonio Bauzá, Colegio de Abogados de Puerto Rico, Juan Cartagena, Esq., President Latino Justice; Hon. Rene Plasencia, Florida State Representative; Hon. Bob Cortes, Florida State Representative; Hon. David Santiago, Florida State Representative; Hon. John Cortes, Florida State Representative; Hon. Victor Torres, Florida State Representative

Presenters include: Mr. Howard Hills, Esq., recognized expert on the Territorial Clause formerly of U.S. State Department; Professor Enrique Guerra-Pujol, Esq., University of Central Florida; Sonia Colon, Esq., expert bankruptcy attorney; Commissioners Jose Alvarez, Wanda Rentas, Art Otero, Kissimmee, FL; Mr. Juan Martinez, Libre Initiative; Betsy Franceschini, Director of the Office of Puerto Rico Federal Affairs in Florida; Lew Oliver, Chairman, Orange County Republican Executive Committee; Carlos Guzman, President of Latino Leadership, Inc.; Alexi George, President Latin American Festivals, Inc.

Date: October 31, 2015

Place: Wyndham Hotel, Buena Vista Florida

Time: 3-5pm

Sponsored by

For more information: Anthony Suarez, President PRBA FL, Info.prbaflorida@gmail.com 407-841-7373